Key Investment Highlights

- TJX is the only major international off-price apparel and home fashions retailer in the world
  - Key competitive strengths have historically served us well through many types of economic and retail environments
- With our VALUE mission, we have been a top destination for value-seeking consumers for more than four decades
- Historically, strong comp sales and customer traffic increases told us that our fashions and values resonated with consumers at our four major divisions across the U.S., Canada, Europe, and Australia
- In the past 45 years, product availability has never been an issue
- We are convinced that our extremely flexible business model, decades of off-price experience, and global sourcing and buying power will serve us well in the long term
- As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, in fiscal 2021 and 2022, we took prudent actions to strengthen our financial position and balance sheet, and maintain financial liquidity and flexibility
- Well-positioned to capture market share over the long term
The TJX Companies, Inc. Safe Harbor Statement

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995:

Various statements made in this presentation are forward-looking and involve a number of risks and uncertainties. All statements that address activities, events, or developments that we intend, expect or believe may occur in the future are forward-looking statements, including, among others, statements regarding the Company’s growth potential, merchandise availability, leadership expertise, buying and sourcing strategy, and ability to attract new customers and increase sales. The following are some of the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements: the COVID-19 pandemic; execution of buying strategy and inventory management; customer trends and preferences; competition; various marketing efforts; operational and business expansion; management of large size and scale; merchandise sourcing and transport; labor costs and workforce challenges; personnel recruitment, training and retention; data security and maintenance and development of information technology systems; corporate and retail banner reputation; cash flow; expanding international operations; fluctuations in quarterly operating results and market expectations; mergers, acquisitions, or business investments and divestitures, closings or business consolidations; real estate activities; inventory or asset loss; economic conditions and consumer spending; changes in economic conditions; serious disruptions or catastrophic events; disproportionate impact of disruptions in the final quarter of the fiscal year; commodity availability and pricing; adverse or unseasonable weather; fluctuations in currency exchange rates; compliance with laws, regulations and orders and changes in laws, regulations and applicable accounting standards; outcomes of litigation, legal proceedings and other legal or regulatory matters; quality, safety and other issues with our merchandise; tax matters; and other factors that may be described in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, without limitation, the Annual Report on Form 10-K, which was filed on March 30, 2022 and is also available at tjx.com under “Investors – Financial Information – SEC Filings”. We do not undertake to publicly update or revise our forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied in such statements will not be realized.
